Selenium & Coded UI Framework

Automated test scripts can be very expensive and difficult to maintain for testers and subject matter experts (SMEs). To solve the lack of test tools coverage for Microsoft Dynamics, Testhouse has developed the most advanced Dynamics Automation Framework built on Selenium (for Dynamics CRM & 365 for Sales) and Coded UI (for Dynamics AX & 365 for Operations) allowing test scripts to be easily created, maintained and updated. A well integrated framework accelerates test script production ensuring less maintenance and requiring less advanced test automation skills.
